- The Homestay administration fee is a non-refundable, once-only fee. This may be charged again if a student moves homes through their own volition or without cause. The school reserves the right to use its discretion on a case-by-case basis)

All students must live with a Glenfield College approved caregiver (either police-vetted Homestay, Designated Caregiver (DCG) or a legal guardian/parent) The Homestay Coordinator will inspect and monitor all Homestay and DCG accommodation according to the Code of Practice. This is included in the Homestay administration fee.

- Homestay fees: lump sum to be paid in advance. Special food requirements will incur an additional charge up to $50 per week.

Glenfield College pays the Homestay caregiver every two weeks (in advance) and accounts for all money received and payments made from Homestay money.

Students wishing to change their homestay are required to give two weeks' notice.

Any funds remaining at the end of the student's stay will be refunded into the payee's bank account in the home country.
