Please note:

- Administration and support fees are non-refundable and are charged once per year.
- All students must live with a Glenfield College approved caregiver (either police-vetted homestay, designated caregiver (DGC) or a legal guardian/parent). All homestays and DGC are inspected and monitored according to the Code of Practice. This is included in the homestay administration fee.
- For moves between homestays, this may incur additional charges if a student moves homes through their own volition or without cause. (The school reserves the right to use its discretion on a case-by-case basis and may charge the student $200 per move).
- Homestay fees: lump sum to be paid in advance. Special food requirements will incur an additional charge up to $50 per week.
 - Any funds remaining at the end of the student's stay will be refunded into the payee's bank account in their home country.
- The contingency fee or unused portion of homestay funds may be used to cover any fees outstanding that have not been paid.
- All students must have travel insurance which can be arranged prior to travel in their home country.
- If special reports are required over and above the normal reports the School produces, then a Report fee may be charged.
